

Used at least three "human-centered design" techniques or tools

Intuitive user interface: Layout designed from users perspective for easy usage.

Data summarize in one tool: All information located in one comprehensive tool.

Visual Tool: Graphics used with 2 main color schemes to distinguish between data sets.

User research, persona creation, information architecture, and usability testing.

